Tax Considerations in Real Estate

taught by Daniel J. Gatto, CPA, Partner, Gatto, Pope & Walwick, LLP

Dan Gatto, the founding partner of Gatto, Pope & Walwick, LLP, has more than 25 years of experience in public accounting. While he is well experienced in all areas of public accounting, Dan specializes in tax with concentrations in real estate taxation matters, estate planning, trust administration, flow-through entities and related services. Dan also assists high net worth clients with wealth accumulation management and related advisory services. He has also been involved in income tax examinations, business planning and analysis, establishment of complex accounting procedures and controls, and assistance with purchases and sales of businesses.

Dan currently teaches a Real Estate Taxation course at the University of San Diego. He is actively involved in the community and currently serves on the Finance Committee for the San Diego Community Foundation and is a Board Member for the UCSD Cancer Center. Additionally, he is involved with the University of San Diego Family Business Forum.

Dan is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Public Accountants.

Dan and his wife, Stacy, have two children, Nick and Kim. Dan enjoys playing golf, swimming, travel, and spending time with his family.
